FFCDC's Celebrates 40 & Fabulous With Fashions and Fun

Boca Raton, Florida – They say 40 is the new 30! Florence Fuller Child Development Centers (FFCDC) is thrilled to celebrate our 40th year with a fabulous fashion show, presented by Alene Too, an upscale boutique with three locations in the heart of Boca Raton. Hosted by Spin Ultra Lounge, the event will include a sumptuous lunch by the bite, a signature cocktail, and raffle featuring designer accessories and one exquisite piece of jewelry from Van Cleef.

The event is part of a yearlong tribute to FFCDC's 40th year of providing early education to disadvantaged children. Denise Zimmerman, Board Member and event Chair, explains, "I am so excited about this partnership with Alene Too as I know we will make even more women in our community aware of FFCDC! And, not to mention have a FABULOUS time!"

Alene Too has a big heart, not just the one in their logo. Like the women behind the business, partners; Debbie Weisman and Lizzy Schwartz have a company motto of giving back (so much so) they have created a program called "Shopping With A Purpose." Their hearts were never bigger then when they met with Florence Fuller Child Development Center. The entire staff toured the facility and it was an experience no one will forget. "This is a place that is helping children to have the opportunity for a better future and," states both Weisman and Schwartz "We must do our part to help this cause. This is why Alene Too believes being part of the FFCDC'S 40 and Fabulous event was so important."

Tickets for the event are going fast. A VIP section, which includes seating closest to the runway and a signed copy of Rachel Zoe's book, has been added with ticket cost of $100. General reservations are still
